By the end of this unit
All children can: Use vocabulary in French for different school subjects.

Most children can: Express positive and negative opinions in French.

Some children can: Say what time they learn different subjects in French.

Background understanding for teachers and parents:
In this unit, children will complete a range of activities, starting with learning about their school routine in French. They will be using sentences to describe what subjects they do and do not like and then be able to understand and discuss what times they study different subjects in a typical school day.

Curriculum Driver (one):
Communication

Evidence outcome:
To learn detailed phrases on how to describe their daily routines at school in relation to subjects. They will be able to look for cognates (words that are similar in French and English).
