

Lodge Farm Primary School March Newsletter

Caring and working together

Spring has sprung in Early Years!

Reception and nursery class have been learning the life cycle of ducks as part of their topic on growth, Last week we welcomed 4 baby ducklings and the children have been helping them learn to swim!

Blackpool

Our annual Blackpool coach trip is on Saturday 20th August—Tickets are £13, payment can be made on parent pay or cash at the school office. £5 deposit is required by 20th May to secure your seat

Colour Run

This year we are repeating our amazing colour run on 24th June, all Lodge Farm children have free entry and adults are welcome at £5 per adult, spaces are limited though so please book now to avoid disappointment!!

Easter Raffle

Toy Sale

Run by our School Council

Bring in your unwanted toys after the Easter Break and we will sell them with all the profits going to the PTFA. All toys must be clean, packaged, have all their parts and be in good condition

The illustration shows a cardboard box overflowing with toys. On top of the box is a stack of colorful books, a wooden rocking horse, a blue teddy bear, a dartboard, a basketball, and a red toy car. Next to the box is a pile of colorful lego bricks.
